

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

Corporal Punishment is the infliction of physical pain on a child as a means of controlling behavior. This includes, but is not limited to, spanking, hitting, shaking slapping, thumping, or pinching a child. The Harmony House does not use corporal punishment.

I have read and understand the above.

Discipline

I understand that the guidelines for discipline are: "time out", redirection, and positive reinforcement. No corporal punishment will be used. If continued or excessive misbehavior occurs, the staff will seek assistance from the parent(s) in the correction of the problem which could include and is not limited to dismissal as a last resort.

(This must be read, signed, and dated yearly)
